

Code of Basic Conduct

We are here to preserve the memories of the American soldiers, both men and women, that have served our beloved country throughout history. Our organization undertakes this task thru education of the general public, preservation of artifacts, and the physical representation and conduct of a military organization. Therefore as a group with a common interest and motivation, it is necessary to outline the basic requirements that are to be adhered to unconditionally by any person that is a member to this unit of organization as designated the 117th Regiment /30th infantry division, United States Army.

First and foremost, this unit will not serve as a political, paramilitary, militia or survivalist platform and will not tolerate any such actions from any of its members. Violation of this article will result in immediate banishment from the unit.

As is necessary in a military environment, all members while associating themselves with the 117th/30th:

- a. Obey all local and federal laws.
- b. Treat other members with common decency and respect.
- c. Refrain from cussing while in public.
- d. Adhere to all Bylaws of both the HRS and the 117th/ 30th.
- e. Be courteous and considerate to Veterans, their memories may be a bit cloudy at times, but they lived what we are doing — they are always right, even when they mix up the facts a little.
- f. Adhere to the required minimum uniform standards.
- g. Salute all American Officers of the HRS when appropriate.
- h. Maintain themselves in a hygienic manor befitting a soldier of the United States armed forces.
- i. Address all other US Allied members of the HRS by their appropriate title when appropriate.
- j. Carry out orders unconditionally and with the utmost of efficiency.
- k. Will not command any member to execute any order that would result in the harm of themselves or other members.
- l. Wear the required basic uniform of the 117th regiment at any organizational gathering sanctioned by the HRS or the 117th Infantry.
- m. Concur that only members who have rightly earned rank, ribbons, awards etc. are permitted to wear them.

I have read, fully understand and agree with the Code of Basic Conduct of the 117th Regiment/ 30th Infantry Division, HRS. I also understand that violation of any portion of this code can result in my immediate removal from this unit.

---

Signature

---

Date