WHAT IS KASBAH CONSIGN?

Consignment Furnishings return to a vibrant downtown Manchester after a 15 year absence. Items are displayed in an eclectic environment full of charm.

What items can be consigned?

We reserve the right to reject any items we deem unsalable

Items should be in clean, and unbroken condition.

In addition to furniture we also take the following items on consignment:

Small, unique architectural salvage, crystal and glassware

Pottery, fine china, lamps, garden art

Sterling and silver plate and other metal items, fine/costume jewelry

Mirrors, pictures, wall hangings

Unique decorative accessories

Accent pillows, bronzes and statuary

Collectibles, old hunting and fishing items

Music and jewelry boxes, Musical instruments

Antique toys and dolls, Oriental rugs

WHAT DOES KASBAH CONSIGN CHARGE TO SELL ITEMS?

Consignors receive 65% on items that sell for over $25.00 and 50% on items that sell for $25.00 or less.

Consignors leave items with Kasbah Consign for a minimum of 60 days with a markdown of 10% at 30 days.

After 60 days, consignors may remove items at no charge or leave them in place another 30 days with an additional 10% markdown. After 90 days items must be removed or otherwise will be forfeited by the consignor and become the property of Kasbah Consign.

Who establishes the prices?

Our knowledgeable staff will determine prices. Your input as to the history, age and original cost of the item is appreciated.

When and how to consignors get paid?

Once a month a check and a list of items sold may be picked up or will be mailed to the consignor.

How do I get furniture approved for consignment?

Email photos of furniture or bring in pictures for us to view. Email to Kasbahconsign@live.com. Please include your phone number. Someone will be in touch to discuss marketability. We cannot guarantee we will take furniture until we see it in person.

Do I need an appointment to consign items?

Yes it is recommended. Just call ahead to let us know which day you plan on coming. If you bring furniture yourself, please have someone who can help you carry the items into the store.

What about transportation of furniture?

Kasbah Consign can recommend someone who is very reasonable. The fee varies depending on quantity and distance.

Contact us for his name and phone number and be sure to let us know if you make arrangement with him to deliver items to our store.
