Summer Volleyball Camp

This year the Auburn Mountainview Summer Volleyball camp is for players going into 7th through 12th grade. All participants will receive instruction, meet the coaching staff, and have an opportunity to prepare for the 2007 high school season.

Camp Director- Momi Bowles

Momi Bowles will begin her third year as the Head Volleyball Coach. This past season proved to be monumental as the Lions earned the school's first volleyball State Championship appearance led by senior co-captain Nicole Claudon and League MVP and All-State co-captain, Megan McBride. Coach Bowles spent the last three years as Head Volleyball Coach at Kent-Meridian High School. Prior to that, she taught and coached for 10 years in Spokane, Washington at North Central High School. Coach Bowles played at Gonzaga University and during her career at GU, she captained the 20th ranked Bulldogs to their first ever trip to the NCAA Tournament. Currently, Coach Bowles is the Director at Gonzaga University's Volleyball Camp and will return again this summer for her 17th year.

Focus

This camp is designed for all future Mountainview players. Each camper will receive instruction in the latest techniques for passing, setting, attacking, blocking, individual defense, and serving. Basic team offenses and defenses appropriate to each level will be taught.

We are Mountainview!
