Happy New Year!

Volume 3, Issue 1, Jan 2009

I hope everybody had a great holiday season and the weather in your area didn't disrupt your plans too much. I certainly didn't think we would have a White Christmas here in the Pacific Northwest and have it last so long. In fact, as I type this it is snowing once again with over an inch on the ground once more. Supposedly, the temps are going to warm up over night and the precipitation turn to rain. I sure hope so. I need to go back to work tomorrow after two weeks off and it would be nice to have the roads passable. That's one thing that is different from the Midwest where I grew up and the PNW, roads do not get taken care of as quickly here as they should be.

My Brother PR600 gets the job done.

With my time off of work, I was able to take the time to do an inventory count. I still have quite a few items that I would like to clear out and will be offering another Inventory Clearance Sale for the first two months of the year. I will create a list of items with sizes and prices that you will be able to view on my website in the next day or two as soon as I get it posted. Make sure and take a look.

If you also choose to have your item embroidered, I will give you an additional 5% off your order.
