Happy Holidays!

Volume 2, Issue 5, Nov 2008

So Halloween is over and Thanksgiving will be fast approaching, then on to Christmas. This is definitely one of my busiest times of the year. I am busy embroidering items for My Friends & More Holiday Bazaar. I have been participating in this bazaar for the last few years and this year it takes place on Saturday, November 8th. If you happen to be in the Bothell area that Saturday, stop by and check out some of my new items and some of my good 'ol standbys. Of course, I will once again be donating 10% of my sales for the day to Canine Companions for Independence.

My Brother PR600 gets the job done.

After the bazaar, Chesney and I will be preparing to head off to Santa Rosa. Yes, it is time for him to start his advanced training. Brixton and I will be sad to have him leave, but our hopes are high for him to do well and graduate in six months.

Newsletter Spotlight

Once I get back home, it will be time to start work on holiday gifts. Did you know that embroidered items make great holiday gifts? You can personalize a shirt, tote bag or blanket with a design featuring a favorite hobby or sport. How about a favorite animal, flower or car? Your gift will truly be one of a kind and one that will never be forgotten.

A percentage of each "dog" related embroidery sale will be donated to one of these charities of your choice:

Canine Companions for Independence

Guide Dogs for the Blind

Reading With Rover

Delta Society

The deadline for ordering items to be delivered by Christmas is December 1st. If you order before Thanksgiving, make sure and mention the discount code THANKS to get a 5% discount on your embroidery order.

Many Different Santas

One of my latest embroidery design purchases was one that has the many different styles of Santas that have been portrayed throughout the years throughout the world. Check some of them out below:

Santa 1930's

Weinachtsmann

Early Father Christmas

St. Nicholas

Danish Julemand
