

Portsmouth Coaching Collaborative:

On Thursday, April 1st, the Portsmouth Coaching Collaborative invites you to attend our monthly meeting. Along with networking, the night's topic will be, "On the Way to a Full and Fulfilling Business: Creating Your Unique Value Proposition." All are welcome: coaches and anyone wishing to learn more about promoting themselves and/or their business. Join us as we discuss ways to get clear and comfortable with how we communicate that which makes our business unique and of value to our prospective clients. Participants will be invited to develop and either try out their messages on the group for input or to just observe the process.

Debra LeClair, life coach, psychologist and business owner (www.fullspectrumwellness.com) will facilitate this interactive presentation. The event will take place from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM at the Rusty Hammer Restaurant, 49 Pleasant Street, in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

The meeting is free for PCC members and $20 for non-members. A one year membership costs $55, or $99 to become a lifetime member. Pre-registration is strongly recommended. Contact Rob Kanzer at 207-439-8911 or email RobKanzer@RobKanzer.com.

6:00 6:15 Registration/networking

6:15 7:00 Order your own meal (pay as you go), socializing

7:00 8:30 Presentation

8:30 9:00 PCC planning future sessions (input from "everyone")