

Washing Instructions

Traditional college method: Splash through mud puddles and accidentally leave it out in the rain. Hang it out of your window to dry.

If you really want to wash it, you can wash it just like your regular clothes (no bleach, though!).

Washing Instructions

Traditional college method: Splash through mud puddles and accidentally leave it out in the rain. Hang it out of your window to dry.

If you really want to wash it, you can wash it just like your regular clothes (no bleach, though!).

Washing Instructions

Traditional college method: Splash through mud puddles and accidentally leave it out in the rain. Hang it out of your window to dry.

If you really want to wash it, you can wash it just like your regular clothes (no bleach, though!).

Washing Instructions

Traditional college method: Splash through mud puddles and accidentally leave it out in the rain. Hang it out of your window to dry.

If you really want to wash it, you can wash it just like your regular clothes (no bleach, though!).