

while eating pizza
at the mall, he asked me to help him write
a letter to his mom.

WHAT WERE YOU DOING AT FIFTEEN?

WHO MADE A DIFFERENCE?

FIFTEEN is an exciting time for most kids. But it's also a time when kids can go down the wrong road—into drug use, crime, and other risky behaviors. In fact, fifteen is the average age of youth involved in the juvenile justice system. Positive adults can help them stay on track. For more information about helping a young person contact: WWW.WHENYOUWERE15.ORG

There are many ways to help a teen.

BE THERE.