When you think of CHURCH,
do you feel SHUT OUT?

- alienated?
- disenfranchised?
- _____ (fill in)

At All Pilgrims Christian Church,
a lot of us have felt that way.

But our sign
out front means
what it says.
We really don't discriminate on
grounds of color,
age, economic
circumstances,
sexual orientation,
or any other
arbitrary boundary.
We celebrate our
diversity.

Do you believe church people are:

- self-righteous?    – narrow?
- judgmental?    – dorky?

We try not to be any of the above.

We're just regular people seeking something greater than material comforts. Some of us would say we are in search of ways to experience and share God's love. Others might say we come together to share in community. We all come to hear the pastors' jokes.

Come check us out.

Pastored in stocking-feet, we invite you to join
in our relaxed
Sunday-morning
atmosphere.

We welcome you,
whoever you are.
Dress comfortably.
Come share our
joyful worship, fine music, and pastors' inspiring messages. With God's timeless love, we invite you—our neighbors—to join our community.

We can't wait to see you
Sundays at ~~4am~~ 10:30am!

*New time,
now through Jan 6, 2008*

We strive to practice
our belief that God's love embraces all—the faithful and the skeptics;
the certain and the
confused; those who have found what they're looking for and those still seeking.
