EESSC 12/13/08 MEETING MINUTES

Christmas Party and Meeting December 13, 2008

The last meeting of 2008 of the Emerald Empire Shetland Sheep Dog Club was called to order by the President, Sylvia Calderwood at 7:15 pm. Members present Sylvia and David Calderwood, Keri Warner and Spencer Warner (guest), Becca and Philip Singer, Carolyn Hancock, Chris Baker, Mary Louise Noble, Surendra Subramani, Scott and Nancy Robinson, Lorraine Still and Al Still (guest), Sheri Schlorman, Barbara Vann and Charley Vann (guest).

The group had a vote on whether to play the Christmas gift stealing game or not. The aye's outnumbered the nays. So this year the group played the game after dinner.

Most of us tried to finagle a cool gift. The chaos that ensued was very funny. Many faces had frowns when their number was called. Ah, now who to steal from and do I really want that or should I just play it safe and pick a wrapped gift from under the tree. We all had a delightful time. All gifts were appreciated...it was all in good fun. David Calderwood tried valiantly to entice someone to take the cheese board. We all enjoyed ourselves especially after such a delicious dinner. Special thanks to Spike (Subramani) for sharing his spectacular home and cooking turkey and ham. THANK YOU AGAIN.

The slate of officers was voted on and accepted as nominated.
