

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Growing Support for Libertarian Texas State House Candidate

LITTLE ELM, Texas - September 20, 2002 - Robert West, Libertarian candidate for Texas State Representative District 64, is proud to announce the addition of Rayleen Turnbow to his growing list of supporters. Ms. Turnbow is the owner of Turnbow Real Estate and the President of the Little Elm Area Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. West expects to meet later this week with General Raymond G. Davis (Ret) or one of his representatives. General Davis, a Marine, former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and America's most highly decorated living veteran, is the National Chairman of "About Face America" and a supporter of the American Veterans In Domestic Defense (AVIDD).

Mr. West said, "As a third generation Texas veteran, I am honored to associate myself with General Davis, About Face America and AVIDD."

Other local supporters of Mr. West include area council-members, clergy, business leaders, parental groups, home schoolers and members of both major political parties. A partial list of supporters can be found at his web site.

UPCOMMING APPEARANCES – Mr. West will have a booth at the annual Autumn Fest on September 28th in Little Elm. He will be present at the GEICO Candidate Open House on October 3rd in Dallas.

Robert West for State Representative
1525 Lakeshore Drive
Little Elm, Texas 75068
972-668-0753
westrl@msn.com

www.RobertWest.org

###