

ANOTHER SUSPECT FOR THE CRIME OF 9/11

GEORGE W. BUSH

SOME OF THE REASONS FOR SUSPICION

1. The majority of his administration belonged to an organization called the Project For A New American Century that recognized a “process of transformation, even if it brings revolutionary change, is likely to be a long one, absent some catastrophic and catalyzing event—like a new Pearl Harbor.”
2. According to former Secretary of the Treasury Paul O’Neill, during the first principals meeting that took place within the Bush Administration in January 2001, Bush asked for them to “go find me a way” to invade Iraq.
3. Several of the statements he made about his actions on the morning of 9/11 have been found to be false.
4. Bush aggressively fought against investigating 9/11. He resisted testifying before the 9/11 Commission until the bitter end. When he finally agreed to testify, he refused to do so publicly, under oath, no recordings or transcripts were allowed, only certain people were allowed in the room, and he had to be at Dick Cheney’s side.
