Universal Supply vs Allen's Oil

Today is a great day for soccer. We started strong with Andrew Pinto, Kristen Bruno, and Cody Chinnock for our offense. Defense was Cassidy Davis, John Dimeglio, Alex Glisson, and Charles Schubert as our goalie. The first quarter was amazing. We had so many shots on goal but couldn't find the net. The second quarter we were pumped up and ready to play. Our offense had a lot of power behind it with John, Alex, and Cassidy. Our defense was strong too, with Cody, Kristen, and Charles. Jenna Wiese made her first appearance in the game as our goalie. We did really well this quarter with Cassidy scoring the first goal of the game. Third quarter we still came out strong. We were still taking shots but again we couldn't find the net. The fourth quarter was a real thriller. We played amazing in this quarter, especially when John scored the second and third goals of the game. We did a very good job this game.

ARH vs Affordable Indoor

ARH showed a lot of improvement in our second game against Affordable Indoor Comfort this week. Hunter Degerlia was incredible in net, making several big saves. Jenna Delfino scored a great goal on a rush up the middle, and Shawn Dibona's hard work also paid off with a goal for ARH. A.J. Monacelli had a great shot on net as well as a strong quarter in goal. Hannah Tavarez was an aggressive force all over the field, attacking the ball and moving it up the field. Frank Bocelle had some great chances in the offensive zone, supported by Paulie Sorrentino and Cole Degerlia. Jack Rehmann also had a strong game, with three goals and some solid defense. Great job everyone; we look forward to another exciting game next week!

Allen's Oil vs Universal Supply

Allen's Oil & Propane scored their first goal of the season. Luke Atanassi dribbled by the defense and shot the team's first goal, great job Luke! Alexis Franks & Daniel Bell were excellent in goal. In the first period, Alexis was like a wall against the opposing players and in the fourth period Daniel dropped to the wet and muddy field to make two fantastic saves. Katelyn Kelsey and Jacob Macrie worked extra hard to get the ball up the field. Angelina Capella and Zack Didinotto played great defense and Smokey Cirillo sent the ball sailing on several kicks. Great team work,,Oooh rahhh!

Spellcasters vs Bagliani's

The early morning rain was a distant memory as the week two game with Bagliani's revved up for action! Spellcasters had "BIG O" offense on its mind with great body and foot maneuvers by Vince, Tyler, and Victoria to keep the ball within scoring range much of the game. They never let up the pressure on Bagliani's defense and goalie. So many close misses on the goal – just keep practicing where to place those kicks! Midfield was the place to be for Sophia, Lindsay, Dane, and Natalie. They helped keep the ball under Spellcaster control and heading toward scoring territory. Was it a bird, a plane? No, it was Trevor's foot – great kicking – that stopped many of Bagliani's offensive drives and sent the ball back the other way, too. Javier and Elizabeth held the line in the goalie box, saving many goal attempts by the other side.

In the end, Spellcasters should be proud of their developing footwork and teamwork skills! Sophia wins "Toughest Player of the Day" honors for losing a loose tooth AND playing through it! A great effort by both sides – congratulations to all!

The Bagliani's Team continued its season with a hard fought match versus Spell Caster. Tough aggressive play was on display in this entertaining game. Leading the Bagliani's offensive effort was Joe Umosella and Christopher Barts, who each contributed a first half goal. Gianna Alessandrini and Mike DiGerolamo displayed solid pressure on the offensive end. Defensively, Bagliani's displayed solid teamwork in defense of our goal. Mona Ghanem, Sara Nelson and Katelyn Brothman led the effort for the team. Jeff Umosella and Danny Estrada continued Bagliani's solid play in goal.

Mercado Cleaning Started a good first week against Crescenzo oil and played very well.

Here we are in the Second week of the season playing against the maple leaves. A rainy start early Saturday but Mercado cleaning kept on pushing strong. Good goal tending from Cody and Julian. The names of the explosive offense are Matt, Page, Jake, and Julia. While the best defense came from Nick, Derra, Amanda, and Spencer. This concludes the second week of the season and GOOD LUCK!! Next week against Porretta Builders.

Lions Club vs. Porretta Builders

The Lions came out with a roar this morning!!! A strong offense to start the game from Evan Earling, Madi Guyer, and John Bock kept the Porretta goalie busy. Alana Gallagher, Eric Mentzel and Gabby Bock helped defensively to keep down the shots on goal, while Jesse Savage was the goalie making some awesome saves. Jason Defeo dribbled with speed trying to break through Porretta's strong defense. The second half was started with Evan Earling having a busy time in goal and making many great saves. The rain couldn't stop the offensive line of Jesse Savage, Jason Defeo & Alana Gallagher, they battled hard to get the ball towards the opponents net. While defensively as the rain poured down Madi Guyer, Eric Mentzel and John Bock tried to keep the opposing team away from their goal. The final quarter Gabby Bock finished the game in net making the saves with the help of her defense, Jesse Savage and Jason Defeo. Evan Earling continued to impress with his incredible head balls and strong field presence. Team work was the key today as John Bock dribbled down the field with a perfect pass to Madi Guyer who finished with her first goal of the season. Great game Porretta Builders!!!! Lions Club we are so proud of each and every one of you. We missed you Mark Santora. Thanks to all our parents who sat through the pouring rain. R-O-A-R!!!

Affordable Indoor vs. ARH

Affordable Indoor played Game Two of the HYSA 2007 season one player short. They all missed their teammate Dominic LaRosa. During the 1st quarter, Tyler Tome stopped several attempts by ARH to score. Regev Melker, Jesse Donovan and Carly DeLuca worked the defensive line. Jesse Donovan jumped over the ball in the 2nd quarter to turn it around as it nears our goal. Emily Komis was ready guarding the goal. Tyler Bronsky played a good offence moving the ball quickly down the field. Carly DeLuca had some good strong kicks. In the 3rd quarter Emily Komis played good defense by stopping several forward attempts. Molly Duffy held her ground. Caleb Richter saved the ball from going out of bounds several times. Regev Melker made a save as the goalie. Congratulations to Emily Komis for being so brave after being hit in the cheek by the ball. After only a brief timeout on the sidelines, she got right back in to the game. Never tiring, Tyler Tome showed how run he can move the ball down field during the 4th quarter. Positioned at center defense, Tyler Bronsky played tough. As the goalie, Caleb Richter prevented ARH from scoring. Good job to Molly Duffy for playing so well even though her wiggly tooth was bothering her. All the players on both teams played a great game.

The offense consisted of Max Rodio, Maria Matioli, Joshua Davis and Ricky Carpo and Elisabeth Davis, Emily Angello, Jeffrey Bailey and Xiomara Perez on defense with Joshua Bruey in goal. Goalies N/A

It's beginning to feel like soccer weather on the fields, and the Blueberry Factory is starting to see results from all their hard work for the past month and a half. We had some great individual efforts, but our players are beginning to play as a team! Kyle Davis started the game with 2 quick goals off of assists from his offensive wings, Tom Hutchinson and Paul Pullia. The sky turned dark in the second period and there was electricity in the air, but it was only David Monaco heating up for the Blueberry Factory. With a cold rain falling and a heavy wind blowing, David knocked in 3 outstanding goals for a hat trick, while Skylar Fabiszewski scored her first goal of the season. Way to go, Skylar! Luckily, the rain held off during the second half as Matt Ortiz, Tom Hutchinson, Isabella Massey and Paul Pullia attacked Hammonton Gazette's goal with numerous shots on goal and nice offensive teamwork. Zac Dispoto, David Monaco and Kyle Davis held off every Gazette attack on defense with great ball control and long clearing kicks. ## G. HUMMELL ELECTRIC vs. Garden State Produce

The rain held off and the skies cleared for what was becoming a perfect fall like day. Two well prepared teams came to play hard for a victory. The game started with our offense pushing hard to get the first goal, Nick Pasquale broke through the Garden State defense to score first. Austin Jeffcoat and Nicole Bock helped out offensively as well. On the defensive side Aaron Torres, Amanda Christon, Nicolette Jones and goalie Nick Ezzi worked hard to keep the ball out of the net. The quarter ended in a 1-1 tie.

During the first half, Mike Illiano and Alyssa Worrell came up with key defensive passes to the offense. Ross Adamucci, Alyssa and Logan Davis all had close, hold-your-breath misses for goal shots.

Down by three points at the start of the second half, Team Adamucci came out strong. Matt Porretta, Alyssa, Aubrie Imperatore, and Kenwyn Samuel kept the ball driving toward our goal. ### Venus and Mars - 3 vs Maplewood 0

It was a nasty, cold and wet Saturday morning, but it didn't affect the fine performance by Venus & Mars. The great team play of Bryan Hummel, Averi Olive, Katie Brinn, Samantha Harrison, and Anthony Chillari allowed Harrison Hitman to score 2 goals and Dan Schenkar to add one, to give Venus & Mars the win over Maplewood. With the rain and wind pounding the defense held back Maplewood with a the superb job lead by Frank Cannistra. Nicole Novicke, Lucas Puentes, and Arturo Guzman kept the opponents in check. Nico Poretta, and Dan Schenker, both turned in another great performance in goal.

Pro-One 0 vs Bassett 1

It was a rainy morning for this tightly fought game! Bassett scored early on a slippery ball the goalie couldn't hold onto. This was the only scoring the game would see! Pro-One tightened their defense and let Bassett have only a few scoring opportunities. Randy Sheats, Christina Cavallaro and Kaitlin Rodio were stellar defenders. The line of Seth Lawrenson, Scott Figuero and Anthony Willaims played a good offensive game and never gave up the fight. Jessica Broyles gave Pro-One 3 quarters of shut-out goaltending and kept Pro-One in the game. All this said, the game was controlled by Toria Davis, Connor Wilsbach and Kyle Wilsbach. They kept constant pressure and peppered many shots on goal, many of which found the posts! Toria Davis never let up and setup many scoring opportunities! Connor Wilsbach just missed a goal on a header from a corner kick from Kyle Wilsbach. Keep up the hard work Pro-One!

Bassett Furniture vs. Pro-One Graphics

The raindrops gave way as Bassett and Pro-One took to the field Saturday. In the first quarter, RJ Kaiser scored what turned out to be the only goal of the game. Nonetheless, the rest of the game was a nail-biter, with lots of action against these two evenly matched teams. Becca Pyontek had several saves as goalie in the second and fourth quarters, as did Michael Andreini in the first quarter and Kenny Macrie in the third. Adela Ein, Alex Jones, and Kenny Whisler defended the Bassett goal with every attack by Pro-One. David Piccari, Michael Andreini, TJ Muniz, Jason Torres, Tyler Mazza, and RJ Kaiser were strong offensive lines, passing and driving the ball up the field with might and finesse. Bassett was able to pull off the win with no subs: We missed you, Caroline Cullen, Noel Labb, and Amanda Mazza.

Maplewood vs Venus & Mars

Under stormy skies, Maplewood began its second game of the season against Venus and Mars. The first quarter remained scoreless with Peter Interlante in goal backed by a tough defense of Dominic Scaffidi, Jeremy Italiano, Amber Mathis and Kimberly Sirolli. An awesome save by Scaffidi provided to the excitement of this first quarter. ## U-11 Boys Heat vs. Millville Thunder

The U-11 boys Heat went on their first road trip of the year, traveling to Millville. The Millville team had won big the week before and was looking to make it two in row. The Millville coach's new they were going to win, they just kept telling their team they wanted a shut-out this week. Well they got a shut-out, just not the way they planned it. The first five minutes proved the Heat could play with this team, with the mid-fielders Jacob Broyles, Logan Davis, John Maimone and Doug Fusco carrying the ball skillfully up field. The forwards Nick Weiss, Alex Malaspina, Jacob Troelstra, Jay Romer and Micheal Morano attacked with everything they had. Tyler Morgan was perfect again in goal. Skillfully playing every shot. Even saving an indirect penalty shot, from inside the penalty box, that he batted in the air and then caught.

Half way thru the first half, from a perfect pass from Logan Davis, who had an unbelievable game, Alex M. broke thru the Millville defense. It's just something you have to see. When Alex M. gets in the open field, nobody is going to catch him. He goes 90 MPH, sets up his left footed shot at a full sprint, and never misses. The Heat, with a 1 0 lead at half time was loose, (their always loose) and having the time of their life. Happily eating oranges and goofing off. The Coach's meanwhile were not so loose. The start of the second half saw the longest sustained offensive push that I've ever seen. Millville came out with a vengeance. The outstanding defenders Lou Santanello, Alex Ballistreri, Marcus Mitchell and PJ Tome with help of the whole rest of the team fended off this unreal attack. John Maimone was incredible in goal, calmly saving every shot, it seemed like a hundred, and punting them across mid field. Alex M. got under one of them, and took off, 90 MPH, for his third goal of the season. That was the end of Millville. Heat 2, Millville 0 We missed you Christian Santos and Alec Arena.

The Hammonton Heat U-11 Girls defeated Washington Township 4-0 on Saturday in an incredible display of passing and ball control. Goalkeeper Ashley Vassallo maintained her focus until finally challenged in the waning minutes of the game, coming up with a great save to secure the shutout. Janie Donio Enscoe got the Heat on the board early with a rush to the net on a beautiful cross from Elizabeth Shendock . Shendock scored herself a few minutes later on a stellar direct kick from just outside the 18 yard line that found the net in the upper right corner. At midfield, Lacey Demarco, Erin Rehmann, Carlina Sacco all gave an excellent effort in moving the ball up the field and supporting play at both ends of the field. Sarah Marienski scored her first goal with a top-shelf shot in the second half. Leanne Barbera anchored the defense in the first half and led the offensive charge in the second, displaying great ball control and field sense. Zeria Conover and Danielle Pullia each had beautiful on-target touch passes throughout the game to maintain ball control, while Gabrielle Sirolli, Cassidy McAnney and Julia Schenker provided rock solid defense to shut down Washington Township on every rush. Leisha Contes' lightning rushes up the right wing provided offensive pressure all day, and rewarded her with a goal as well. The Heat came on strong following their 6-0 defeat of TBAA last week (on goals from Schenker, Donio Enscoe, Barbera and Shendock (3)). Undefeated and outscoring their opponents 10-0 thus far this season, the U-11 girls will be challenged next Saturday by Millville at 2 p.m. at home.

The Hammonton Heat U-12 Girls team beat Edgewater Park 5-0. Sierra DeMarco started the scoring off in the first minute of the game followed closely by Taylor Downey. Samantha Spinelli scored twice and Amy Rodio scored the final goal of the game on an assist from Desiree Austin.
