Explain briefly your family situation and why you are filling out this application:

Disclaimer: Hallstrom is a large academic co-op, and the Board must always take into consideration what is best for the whole group. Historically we have taken our parent participation requirement very seriously. This new policy is only a trial, and each application will be seriously and fairly considered. If an application is not granted to a particular student, that is not necessarily a negative reflection on that student or family, but possibly only that the Board does not know that family well enough to grant such a privilege.
