

Magellan Center for Business Exploration

Exploring ideas that shape your world

Contact

About Magellan

Projects

Publications

Calendar

Membership

Press Center

What contributes to a successful enterprise?

Is there a perfect business plan?

What is the connection between entrepreneurship and innovation?

How do businesses thrive through “power partnerships?”

The Magellan Center answers questions about entrepreneurship through qualitative and quantitative research.

A nonprofit, nonpartisan think tank and resource center, the Magellan Center provides practical information on all aspects of entrepreneurship through studies, demonstration projects and conferences.

We foster collaboration among large corporations, small businesses, nonprofit organizations and communities to enhance economic growth by facilitating partnerships and

News & Events

Ten senior fellows join Magellan Center.

Great news for Colorado: Read news reports linking innovation and entrepreneurship.

Latest Studies & Projects

Winning proposals announced for Colorado Catalyst² project.

Our Incubator Review Study continues to examine the current state of business incubators globally.

creating new approaches to benefit enterprise.

Copyright © 2005
Magellan Center for Business
Exploration
Site design by Information
Engineering Company