This month's feature: Former President of Italy Speaks Out On 9/11

In Italy's most widely read newspaper Corriere della Sera, the nation's former President Francesco Cossiga has proclaimed that the Sept. 2001 terror attacks in New York and Washington D.C. were operations carried out by persons within the American CIA and Israeli Mossad intelligence services. His comments from an article published at the end of November 2007, translated into English, are as follows:

"[Bin Laden supposedly confessed] to the Al Qaeda September [attack] on the two towers in New York [claiming to be] the author of the attack of the 11th, while all the [intelligence services] of America and Europe ... now know well that the disastrous attack had been planned and realized from the CIA and the Mossad with the aid of the Zionist world in order to put under accusation the Arabic Countries and in order to induce the Western powers to take part ... in Iraq [and] Afghanistan."

Cossiga was the elected leader of Italy from 1985 to 1992, and had previously told author Webster Tarpley that the 9/11 attacks could have only succeeded with infiltration of radar and flight security personnel. His comments support the research and contentions of many independent journalists and dozens of former government and military personnel in the USA, who believe that the attacks were facilitated or carried out by persons within the US governing structure. Facts supporting that hypothesis include the connections between current and former CIA personnel to put options trades on airline stocks before 9/11, Mossad spy operations shadowing the alleged hijackers for months prior to 9/11, and the fact that Israeli officials bragged about how the attacks helped arouse American sympathy for Israel's battle against Palestinian and Islamic militants. That Zionist and Neoconservative plans for invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq were expedited by reaction to the 9/11 attacks also supports the examination of CIA and Mossad elements as suspects with motives to participate in the 9/11 attacks.

Recently, experts from Pilots for 9/11 Truth (www.pilotsfor911truth.org) have released films in their Pandora's Black Box series showing how the government's data about the flight paths and crashes of Flights American 77 and United 93 contradict key portions of evidence and witness testimony. This adds to contradictions presented by numerous researchers about the WTC implosions and of widespread documentation of foreknowledge of plans for attacking targets in the USA during the time frame in which 9/11 occurred. The government's refusal to release evidence that could answer questions from 9/11 researchers along with the media's refusal to honestly report on evidence uncovered by 9/11 researchers who refute government claims suggests a large web of corruption and conspiracy surrounds the events of September 11, 2001. The idea that the 9/11 attacks were by external Islamic jihadists whose existence is a threat to Western nations has been the basis for US foreign policy. Those policies are ones which logically will generate antagonism toward the USA from many Muslims and will increase the amount of anti-US militants who can be recruited. Astute observers will consider that there is a plan to lure the USA into a global war by tricking America to believe it is under attack from Muslims and thereby lashing out at innocent Muslims, who will support retaliation in what they consider to be self-defense - just as many Americans believe that attacking Afghanistan and Iraq is self-defense. Agent provocateurs seem to be at work to create wars for the benefit of an elite few. Americans would be wise to stop accepting lies and to take action to depose their leaders in a peaceful, Constitutional manner, before the Constitutional options are removed and only a non-peaceful revolt is feasible.

At present, a few more Congresspersons are considering Impeachment of Bush and Cheney. Activists, including The Florida Impeachment Coalition (www.floridaimpeach.org) have contacted members of the House Judiciary Committee to encourage them to proceed with investigating the crimes of Cheney and bringing the evidence to the full House for a debate and vote on impeachment. South Florida Congressman Robert Wexler (D) has voiced his support for acting on Rep. Kucinich's bill and Miami's CBS-4 TV station has been the first in the country to report on the Impeachment movement's campaign to push Congress to take actions regarding crimes of the Bush Administration. Wexler's call for impeachment investigation received over 100,000 petition signers online within a week of its placement on a website.
