"In a time of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act" - George Orwell

"We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American public believes is false" - statement by William Casey, CIA Director, at 1981 staff meeting

This month's feature: WHO IS RON PAUL?

Republican Congressman Ron Paul is making waves in the political world as his grass roots, anti-establishment campaign continues to gain supporters and contributions. Ron has been known by colleagues as "Dr. No" due to his consistent refusal to go along with pork barrel politics and unconstitutional laws pushed through Congress by a variety of special interests. Ron has been a staunch civil libertarian and opposed the Bush administration more than most Democrats have. Ron warns us that there are those in power who plan to push us into a one world government that tramples on our individual rights and brings wealth for the few at the expense of the rest of the population. He has opposed the Iraq war since it was first proposed by George W. Bush and the neo-conservatives and voted against the PATRIOT Act, which was rushed through Congress in the wake of 9/11 before anyone voting on it had time to read all of it. The political establishment often try to call Ron a fringe candidate who caters to conspiracy theorists, yet in our Orwellian age of universal deceit, there are indeed conspiracies and telling the truth is a revolutionary act. Ron's supporters have dubbed their movement "The Ron Paul rEVOLution" and attend his public appearances in large numbers, seeing Ron as a lone man of integrity in a profession dominated by charlatans.

Highlighted here are some of Ron Paul's views and plans for his administration should he be elected US President:

- I. Remove U.S. troops from Iraq and end unconstitutional US military involvement in foreign countries. Ron believes that imperial military operations and covert interventions against foreign governments have created hostility rather than friendship between the USA and other nations.
- II. End the Federal Income Tax and restore fiscal responsibility to government. The U.S. Government lives on debt and income taxes merely fund some of the interest on that debt. Ron Paul wishes to gain our independence from the banking cartels and allow U.S. Citizens to keep more of their income and choose how they will use their wealth rather than forcing them to give it to the Federal government to be squandered by notoriously corrupt government agencies.
- III. Repeal all unconstitutional provisions of the PATRIOT Acts. Ron supports ALL of the Bill of Rights amendments to the U.S. Constitution and wishes to protect citizens from having those rights abused. Visit www.usconstitution.com to read the U.S. Constitution and see the oath that Federal office holders take to uphold the Constitution.

IV. Abolish the Federal Reserve banking system and give Congress control over the nation's money. The Federal Reserve is a privately owned banking cartel that was given control of the nation's money printing and monetary policies in 1913. They have manipulated the economy to benefit insiders and left the USA in massive debt, meaning the nation can be controlled by creditors such as International Bankers and foreign countries like China and Saudi Arabia. www.moneyasdebt.net has an excellent free movie on economics that helps explain how the banking elite siphon wealth from the public.

V. Leave legislation about reproductive choices involving abortion to the individual states. Ron is personally opposed to abortion but doesn't believe the Constitution allows for the Federal government to make any laws concerning this issue. Abortion views are greatly influenced by personal values and Ron doesn't wish to impose his values on this matter upon the whole country.

VI. Reject trade agreements such as NAFTA, CAFTA, & WTO, which interfere with national sovereignty and promote interests of big businesses at the expense of smaller competitors and the individual rights of citizens in the participating nations. Ron opposes the North American Union that is being established without consent of Congress or the American public.

VII. Remove all taxes on Social Security benefits and restore solvency to the Social Security system. If we pay into the Social Security system we must expect the government to keep its end of the bargain, which it can't do if it squanders our money and bankrupts itself.

VIII. Protect health freedom. Allow the public access to information about natural health products and access to obtain both conventional and alternative health care of their own choosing. No government forced medication of children or forced mental health screening. Our bodies and our privacy are not to be violated by government bureaucrats and the public are not to be made unwilling guinea pigs for pharmaceutical companies. Visit www.healthfreedomusa.org for more information on health care issues.

IX. Defend the right of parents to choose their children's method of schooling, to include home schooling in accordance with state guidelines as an education option.

X. Protect property rights. Protect citizens from having governments and corporations use eminent domain to force them off their land.

Who we are and why we started this publication

On behalf of my friend Jed and I, we'd like to welcome you to our first edition of Miami Free Press. This small, simple paper is born of our desire to plant ideas, thoughts and concepts that are not only a departure from the mainstream, but downright in the opposite direction.

We remember a time where one was not so afraid to express themselves. Back when life did not seem such a tiring struggle for meaning and truth. Although all ideas expressed in our paper are our own, the need to express our truth has manifested in this paper, and so, we share them with you.

As more issues turn out, we hope to expose our readers to different thoughts and points of view. We hope to encourage everyone to question everything and trust in yourself again.

We encourage criticism and thoughts of your own. We all need ideas on how to develop our self so that we can avoid the staunch path of linearity we are all forced to tread, if only a little bit at a time. Respect for individuality and freedom is our only salvation. Please, join us in our quiet simple way of saying...I will not go quietly along with the masses. I have my own ideas and will express them, as freely as I can.

My participation in this effort comes following about a decade of research into suppressed information. I have a master's degree in counseling psychology and undergraduate minors in history and political science from the University of Miami, while I came to discover that what we're taught about how the world is run is a facade. I've become a student and practitioner of "alternative" healing methods, such as hypnosis, reiki energy/spiritual healing, energy psychology, and nutritional approaches to health and wellness. I've heard the testimony of and seen evidence provided by a variety of whistleblowers about the deceptions and crimes being perpetrated against humanity, and would like to help people who are ready step outside of their programming and learn to critically examine information and think for themselves more rather than trusting corrupt and misguided authorities. British royal advisor Sir Francis Bacon (who published the Shakespeare plays and King James Bible, inserting Masonic cyphers/codes into both) coined the phrase "Knowledge Is Power;" it doesn't take long to recognize that those in power intentionally disinform the public in order to expand and maintain their own power. If you want to have a monopoly on power you start by keeping a monopoly on information and keeping the masses ignorant and misinformed. CIA directors William Casey (under Reagan) and William Colby (under Clinton) both claimed the CIA controlled the media and misled the U.S. public. The wolves pose as shepherds and laugh at the flock for being a bunch of thoughtless sheep. Who foster and manipulate humanity's subconscious fears and insecurities? Why are there a handful of families controlling trillions of dollars of wealth while billions live with hunger and poverty? This is not accidental, it's by design. It doesn't change, because people are herded by the same cons and con-artists over and over throughout history. The choice is always yours as to if and when you want to be awake and following your own capacity for understanding and wisdom rather than conforming to some belief-system being pushed upon you.
