

Psalm 119 vs. 33-40

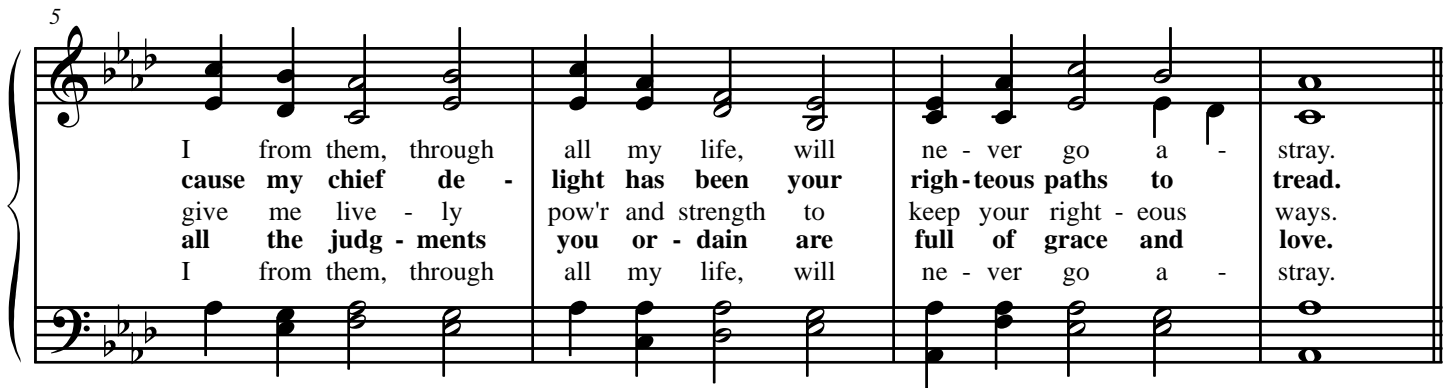

Metrical Text by Brady & Tate

Tune: EVAN

CONGREGATION

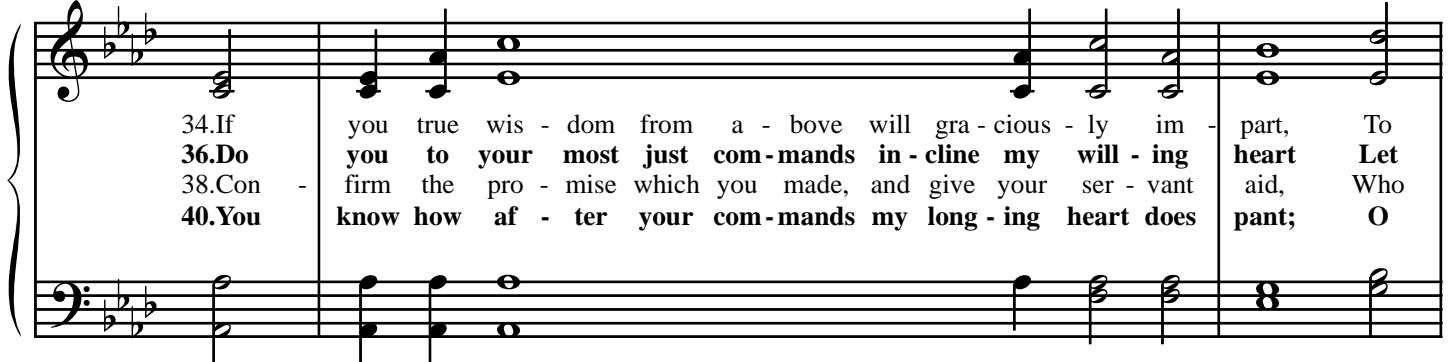

33. In - struct me in your sta - tutes, Lord, your righ - teous paths dis - play; And
35. Di - rect me in the sa - cred ways To which your pre - cepts lead; Be -
37. From those vain ob - jects turn my eyes, which this false world dis - plays; But
39. The foul dis - grace I just - ly fear, in mer - cy, Lord, re - move; For
33. In - struct me in your sta - tutes, Lord, your righ - teous paths dis - play; And

I from them, through all my life, will ne - ver go a - stray.
cause my chief de - light has been your righ - teous paths to tread.
give me live - ly pow'r and strength to keep your right - eous ways.
all the judg - ments you or - dain are full of grace and love.
I from them, through all my life, will ne - ver go a - stray.

9 CANTOR

34. If you true wis - dom from a - bove will gra - cious - ly im - part, To
36. Do you to your most just com - mands in - cline my will - ing heart Let
38. Con - firm the pro - mise which you made, and give your ser - vant aid, Who
40. You know how af - ter your com - mands my long - ing heart does pant; O keep your per - fect laws I will de - vote my zeal - ous heart.

no de - sire of world - ly wealth From you my thoughts di - vert.
to trans - gress thy sa - cred laws is aw - ful - ly a - fraid.
then make haste to raise me up, and pro - mised suc - cor grant.
