

National Postal Mail Handlers Union

THE BREAKDOWN

National Postal Mail Handlers Union
 2009 Legislative Conference
 May 20 – 22

Local 308 representatives Bill Smith, Mike Rembelinsky, John Gibson, and John Macey

Mail Handlers from across the country met in Washington DC to discuss important Legislative issues that affect us as mail handlers. Following the discussions the attendees lobbied on Capital Hill to inform our politicians of our stance when it comes to the issues that impact our jobs, and to thank the politicians who already are supporting our issues.

Early in the history of labor arbitration, renowned Arbitrator Saul Wallen stamped this solemn perspective on the issue of subcontracting:

Job security is an inherent element of the labor contract, a part of its very being. If wages is the heart of the labor agreement, job security may be considered its soul. Those eligible to share in the degree of job security the contract affords are those to whom the contract applies....

Be who you are and say what you feel 'cause people who mind don't matter and people who matter don't mind.—Theodor Seuss Geisel (aka "Dr. Seuss") Author, 1904-1991
