THE BREAKDOWN

"History is a great teacher. Now everyone knows that the labor movement did not diminish the strength of the nation but enlarged it. By raising the living standards of millions, labor miraculously created a market for industry and lifted the whole nation to undreamed of levels of production. Those who attack labor forget these simple truths, but history remembers them."
 Martin Luther King Jr., Speaking to the AFL-CIO on December 11, 1961.

"Only a fool would try to deprive working men and working women of their right to join the union of their choice." -- Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"It is one of the characteristics of a free and democratic nation that it have free and independent labor unions." "If I went to work in a factory, the first thing I'd do would be to join a union." -- Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"The hospital strikers have demonstrated that you don't get a job done unless you show the Man you're not afraid...If you're not willing to pay that price, then you don't deserve the rewards or benefits that go along with it." -- Malcolm X.
