

LIVING A LIFE OF IMPORTANCE -
Faith Affirmations for each day of the week

Monday: Today I affirm that the most important invitation that I will receive is to follow Christ so above all else I decide to follow him.

Tuesday: Today I affirm that the most important gift I can offer Christ is to invite him into every area and compartment of my life; thus living truthfully, hopefully, peaceably and generously.

Wednesday: Today I affirm that I will in my heart keep Christ in the most important position in my life: Son of God, Prophet, Teacher, Agitator to the unjust, Savior and Healer.

Thursday: Today I affirm that to Jesus the most important title I could have is servant of God. I will in prayer ask God what Christ wants, I will rejoice when others are honored, I will love people more than perks!

Friday: Today I affirm that I will make space in my life for Christ so that when He Shouts for me to join him there will be a place of joy for me.

Saturday: Today I affirm that my thoughts will be good, trustworthy and full of faith in God and life! For that is a life that counts!

Sunday: Today I will worship the Lord.
