THE REVOLUTION WILL BE FANCY

Announcing BLACK FLAG BLACK TIE, a Very Swank Affair

CHICAGO | Black Flag Black Tie is an evening of delectable edibles, delightful performances and divine pageantry. Anarchists, anti-authoritarians, the anarcho-friendly and the anarcho-curious are invited to don their sequined balaklavas and matching prom duds for a most sophisticated soiree on Saturday, April 19th, 7pm at Q Studios, 2328 North Milwaukee Avenue, 3rd Floor.

The gracious anarcho-hosts will welcome attendees at 7pm with fine food and drink. While dining, guests will enjoy the stylings (literal and figurative) provided by a stellar cast of dancers, singers, musicians, storytellers and fashionistas. Finally, shake a fancy tail feather and anarchy your butt off on the dance floor. See details on the following pages.

Posh attire is encouraged (and may be provided). Uncouth behaviour will not be tolerated: no sexism, homophobia, racism, cigar smoking or spitting...

Proceeds from Black Flag Black Tie will benefit the Chicago Anarchist Film Festival and Midwest Books to Prisoners. $10-20 admission, sliding scale to partake in the festivities.

For information about Black Flag Black Tie and the Chicago Anarchist Film Festival or to purchase advance tickets, please email caff@riseup.net or visit the website: http://home.comcast.net/~more_about_it/blackflagblacktie.html

Ve Magni | A capella Norwegian
Ve Magni is an artist and performer from Los Angeles fascinated by language and how prescribed meaning shapes identity. The Poet Valkyrie music project is an exploration of the Norse and their battle to honor themselves and their souls, how the poesy and construction of their language contributed (and still contributes) to their fighting identity, and vice versa. The music selected is a combination of traditional and contemporary music, sung a cappella in common Norwegian (Bokmål), the western dialect (Bergense), and some Swedish, with themes of existential struggle with and resistance to love, God, and personal identity. www.thepoetvalkyrie.com
