

DEATH OF A SALESMAN

Each group is responsible for presenting the following 3 items.

- I. Soundtrack for a modern film version of D of S . There must be at least 10 songs with a written explanation justifying the song and its placement. Make sure you identify the Act, scene, and page number. During the presentation you must provide 2 sound clips.
- II. One large collage of the American Dream.
- III. One business idea or product that an entrepreneur might present to potential investors. You will sell this idea to the class. Be creative, reasonable, and appropriate.

Each group is responsible for choosing 2 (for groups of 4) or 3 (for groups of 5) more items to include in your presentation.

- I. Monologue of 1 character. Combine lines to make up about 1 page of text. This monologue should help the audience understand the character more fully.
- II. Research the author and present his life story to audience in a way that will retain the audiences interest.
- III. Create a booklet for a class reunion. Include individual profiles of Biff, Happy, and Bernard.
- IV. Create 6 journal entries in the voice of a character. These entries can be from before, during, or after the time of the play.
- V. Create dream posters for each of the major characters. These must be drawn and include at least 1 quote.

VI. Eulogy and obituary for Willy.

VII. Create a questionnaire and survey the public about an issue from the book.

VIII. Write and act out a dialogue between one character from this book and one character from something else we have read this year.
