

UNSUNG HEROES

Now that the school year is in full swing, you have probably settled into the routine of bells and duties. Hopefully, you are enjoying your classes and the satisfaction that comes with knowing that you have made a difference in the lives of your students.

Are you aware that you can also make a difference in the life of one of your peers? It is now time to nominate NJBTEA members who consistently maintain a high level of professionalism, are dedicated, and involved in activities for and about business but who have not received recognition for their continued contributions to business education. If you feel that an NJBTEA educator deserves to be recognized for all he/she does and you would like to see this person acknowledged in our newsletter, please take action now!

Send your Unsung Hero nomination to efairley@exit109.com along with a brief description of why you feel this person is an Unsung Hero. These names and brief commentaries will be published in the next newsletter after receipt. At the 2009 NJBTEA Spring Conference, all names received will be put into a drawing for a free membership in NJBTEA for the 2009-10 school year. Both the winner and the nominator will receive a free membership. So, send in your nomination today before you forget and brighten someone's day! This is a win-win opportunity!
