

Index

This index lists all people, places, and wars mentioned in this book. Alternate spellings of surnames are combined into one entry. Page numbers in italics refer to illustrations. Women are listed under their maiden name and all married surnames, with maiden and prior marriage surnames in parentheses. Individuals, other than slaves, with unknown surnames are listed at the beginning of the index. All slaves are listed under the category Slaves.

Modern place names are used in the index, but refer to historical place names in the text. In most cases, the historical and modern equivalents of places names are apparent, such as Preston County, W.Va. (modern) in the index versus Preston County, Va. (historical) in the text. In less obvious cases, the historical place name is included in the index with a cross-reference to the modern equivalent, such as in the case of Shaffer's Mountain (Preston Co.), W.Va. (modern) in the index versus Foley's Mountain, Va. (historical) in the text.

Wars are also indexed and include Dunmore's War, Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Mexican War, and Civil War. Soldiers, units, battles and places related to these wars are included under each applicable war.
