Dear writer,

Thank you for your interest in the 2006 Scribe and Quill New Voice in Literature Award. The goal of this award is to find and acknowledge quality writing that has been overlooked by agents and the larger publishers. There is more to this contest than simple recognition. One talented pen will receive a publishing contract with Red Engine Press. This competition will be limited to the first two hundred applicants. Submissions will open on June 1st during the Book Expo of America. The winner will be announced during BEA 2006. ~ Beverly Walton-Porter

Judges

Beverly Walton-Porter is a Colorado-based professional freelance writer who has had hundreds of columns, articles and reviews featured in numerous publications since she began freelancing in 1997. She is editor/publisher of Scribe & Quill, an award-winning e-zine for writers. She is co-author of The Complete Writer, published by Red Engine Press. Her next book, Sun Signs for Writers, will be published by F + W Publications, Inc. in 2006.

J.D. (Jimmy) Gordon is a new voice in Literature. His first book titled Caribbean Calling is due for release by Red Engine Press in October 2005. It will be followed by two other books in his tropical crime-based trilogy centered on the adventures of firefighter Eddie Gilbert — Island Bound and Pirate's Fall. Jimmy is a native of Chicago and has been a professional firefighter/paramedic for the past twelve years. Gordon's Caribbean trilogy is his first venture into the world of writing.

Rebecca Forster has been writing for twelve years, six of those in the legal thriller field. Her books include Keeping Counsel, Character Witness, The Mentor and Beyond Malice. She holds an MBA from Loyola University and spent many years as a marketing executive before resigning to write full-time. She is the proud mother of two sons and wife of a Superior Court Judge in Los Angeles, California. Her books have been acclaimed by Publisher's Weekly, Barnes and Noble and she was one of USA Today's best-selling authors.
