

June 26, 2007

Macomb briefs

Countywide: Freedom Hill claim dropped

Macomb County has won a partial victory in its legal battle with the operators of Freedom Hill Amphitheatre in Sterling Heights. U.S. District Judge Robert H. Cleland last week dismissed a claim by Hillside Productions that said it was forced to enter into an agreement with Macomb on parking fees at the county-owned park. The division of parking revenues from county-sponsored and Hillside-sponsored events is at the center of a $250 million lawsuit filed by Hillside against Macomb County.