“Intermediaire” Model Restrictions:

Models and model wins from previous live shows are RESTRICTED.

No Test Run, One-Of-A-Kind (OOAK), Breyerfest Prize/Judges/Volunteer Models, or Peter Stone Prize/Judges’/Volunteer models.

No Extreme Factory Customs. (EXFC)

Factory Custom (FCM) Models which have ONE CUSTOM FEATURE ONLY, which includes the mane, or tail, or a body part, are permitted to show in Intermediaire. Example: The “Bed Bug” Stone Factory Custom ISH, whose sole custom feature is a swished tail, would be allowed to show in all Intermediate Division classes.

Plastic models customized by exhibitor (CM) are allowed ONLY in Class #105, “Family Pets”, and class #113, “Customs by Exhibitor”, in the Fun Class Divisions.

No Resins

No Porcelains or Chinas

No Models which have previously won a Grand or Reserve Grand Championship at any live show.

Order of Classes:

“Intermediaire” and INTERSPORT classes will run simultaneously, in separate rings. Due to the contracted hours scheduled for the show hall, time allowed for tack changes between all Performance classes MUST be held to a minimum and will be expected to be honored by exhibitors.

Class Limits: TWO models permitted per exhibitor, per class, in both Halter and Performance classes.
Exhibitor selling from your own table is permitted, as space allows.

Beforehand:

In the interest of presenting a timely show for everyone, it is expected that ALL model I.D./description cards and toe tags be completed and ready to exhibit BEFORE the start of the show. Please be sure all of your entries are prepared and ready to show before show day. Any necessary model-horse “grooming” should also be done beforehand. If you plan to show in both shows, please try to organize your show strings ahead of time, to minimize delays.

Toe Tags:

Toe tags will be used for model identification. Exhibitors are responsible for furnishing their own toe tags and for insuring that their toe tags are easily legible. Your model’s breed and gender go on one side of the tag, with your model’s name and your name on the other side. Toe tags should be placed with exhibitor’s name face down on the show ring tables. Any entry's toe tag placed with exhibitor's name facing up during showing may disqualify that horse from that class.

Callbacks:

Intermediaire Division Champions and Reserve Champions will be decided by callbacks. At each judge's discretion, callbacks will be either for just 1st place, or for 1st and 2nd place winners in each division. Overall Grand Champions to be decided by callbacks of the Division Champions from each Division.

INTERSPORT Division Champions and Reserve Champions will be decided by callbacks. At each judge's discretion, callbacks will be either for just 1st place, or for 1st and 2nd place winners in each division. Overall Grand Champions to be decided by callbacks of the Division Champions from each of the 2 Divisions.

Judges' Cards:

Exhibitors, please remember to LEAVE ALL MODELS ON YOUR SHOW TABLE after each class has been judged until AFTER your class has been excused by your judge. Judges' names (Please, no initials!) should be printed on each Judge's card and turned in to the show organizer at the end of each division after the Division Champ and Reserve have been pinned.

Other General Rules:

Courtesy, please -

No running in show hall, no smoking, no pets, and turn down your cell phones. Respect your fellow exhibitors and judges by not touching or picking up anyone else's model without prior permission. Please respect your judge's opinions, whether or not you agree with their decisions. Kindly remember that your judges will be working very hard for all of you all day long. At each judge's discretion, you may ask your judges brief questions between class setups if necessary. Please keep your questions to the point and to a minimum. Remember that the judges' decisions are final. Disrespectful or inappropriate behavior toward your judges, your fellow exhibitors, your show holder or show committee members, or anyone associated with the Pennsylvania National Horse Show may result in your loss of show privileges for the remainder of the show, and the forfeiture of your entry fees.
