Teaching art at Kelly
Elementary School

SUN School program
2004-05 and 2005-06
school years

This is just one of many art lessons Christine teaches for the SUN program at Kelly School. Today the 2nd and 3rd graders in the “You’re an Artist” class are working on Accurate Abstraction, where they learn to take everyday things and distort and stylize them using chalk pastel and white tempera paint.
