

#9 Work Sample

Teaching art at
Sellwood Community
Center

City of Portland
Parks & Recreation Dept.
Spring-Summer 2006

Jana and Veronika share their finished masks.

Working on imaginative watercolor paintings.

Creating a still life in pastels.

Emma and her awesome mask!

Christine was hired by Portland Parks and Recreation to teach after school art classes at Sellwood Community Center in spring 2006. Projects included mandalas, masks, self-portraits, still lifes, and studies of Kahlo, Picasso, Gauguin, Miro, and Chagall. Students expressed themselves with watercolors, pastels, acrylics, papier-mache, and lots of imagination.