The nominees were as follows:

President	Len Anzelde
Vice-president	Alan Cox
Treasurer	Peggy Benson
Secretary	Nina Pulliam

The nominees were elected by acclamation

Old Business: The e-mail was passed around to verify correct e-mails

New Business:

It was moved and seconded that current dues of $35.00 per person be kept the same for the coming year The motion was deferred until the Board Meeting.

A motion was then made to reduce the number of meetings from 3 to 2 a month.

A discussion followed with these results:

- !. Only 2 meetings per month
- 2.Only 4 competitions a year with these rules.
 - A. A reduction in prints from 16 to 12
 - B. A reduction in slides from 24 to 21

The months of competition will be discussed at the Board Meeting.

With these new rules our by-laws will have to re-written. Bob Benson volunteered The new rules will be distributed by e-mail.

In the discussion it was determined that hopefully there would be more completions. How to handle make-ups will be determined at the Board Meeting.

This year there was less money spent on trophies ($153.53).
There was a discussion on moving money from the General Fund to the Equipment Fund.
Again this issue was tabled to the Board Meeting.

Mary Warburton moved to have digital competition in place of theme.
Digital themes will be Chicago Scenes, and Flowers. Pictures will be e-mailed to Bob Benson who volunteered to organize them.

A discussion ensued on how to attract and keep members.

Such as:

1. Distribute rules by e-mail
2. Information packet to new members
3. Utilize talent within club
4. Make SAPS a learning club
5. List local events and outings
6. Publicize events in local newspaper
7. Show our photos at local libraries
