Fishing Report by Mario Jorge

On Saturday I hit a wave that just about flooded my boat. It was once of the hardest hits I have been in. I fished on Friday, on the water 7:15 am, lite rain. Found 2 spots in the main lake holding large mouth. It had rained all day and about Noon it decided to really rain HARD. I was going to go to Putah, but decided to go into the narrows. Caught several Spots 1 to 1/4 lb. No wind, but about 2:30p.m. I had had enough of the hard rain and pulled out.

Saturday, got to the launch at 4:30 a.m. and Ray Covert soon arrived. There were 2 to 3 other tourneys going out that day including 35 float tubers.

No wind but fog. I guess there was a misunderstanding with my non-boater and he did not show. While launching my boat, I tripped over my trailer and landed hard in the ramp. Bruised my palm and wrist, shoulder is a little soar also, but the show must go on.

Drove in heavy fog to first spot, and had about 7+lb limit before 9am. About Noon wind picked up and White caps in about 5 mins.. Hide in Berryessa Marina to see if wind would die out, but no luck. Left to go to narrows about 1pm.

Tucked in behind the big island and it was rough, but not to bad. Decided to try and get into the narrows, but speared the "BIG" set half way there. 4 inches water at my feet and back deck flooded, knocked all but 2" of the water out of the live wells. Went into Spanish flat area out of weather for the rest of the day.

Weigh in was scheduled at 4, but I pulled out at 3:30 since I was by myself, good thing, float tubers block one side of the launch and it took over an hour to get all our boat out of the water.

I came in first with 9.98 lbs., Mark Pineda was second with 7 and change, Joe came in third, Jerry was 4th. Joe won big fish with 2.46 lbs. Spotted bass.

All-in-all a good day.
