

Make an IMPACT!

A relevant and passionate message for today's youth.

In an age where technology rules, teens have more access to global interaction than ever before. Because of this, earthly things are becoming easier to find. However, so many people are desperately searching for concrete, eternal promises that only GOD can provide. This flyer does NOT hold the solution to your ministry problems. The only solution is the work of the Holy Spirit. Nothing is more important to your student ministry than your staff and their GOD-given desire to serve. What this flyer offers is a powerful event to help complement your existing ministry. This event is led by a ministry team called Echo After.

A Mission

Echo After is a Christian alternative rock band from Grand Rapids, MI. But, Echo After is more than music. It's more than a band. It's a mission. A mission to reflect, repeat, resonate (ECHO) the love Christ has shown the world. The band exists to drive this mission through music, speaking, and relationships. All four band members have served on previous worship teams and two of the guys have worked in youth ministry.

Music, Worship, Speaking

Echo After's ministry offers original music from their two albums, praise and worship from today's popular artists, and relevant and engaging speaking. The band recently released their first full length album "When I Fall Apart" which was recorded in Dallas, TX with Grammy-winning producer Eric DeLeard. The band's praise and worship style blends influences including David Crowder Band, Kutless, Chris Tomlin, and SonicFlood. Lead singer, Drew, holds a degree in youth ministry and is a fantastic speaker. He has a passion for leading students to Christ and loves to build relationships before and after concerts. Drew's messages are insightful, fun, and moving.

Centered around your needs

An Echo After event may be focused on outreach, worship, discipleship, or just plain fun. If there is a theme you would like the event to focus on, Echo After will prepare music and a message accordingly. Such events may take place during your regular youth meetings, a youth rally, retreat, church service, or other special event. The band has played for all ages and many churches including Baptist, Bible, Community, First Assembly, Methodist, and Reformed.

Maximum impact, minimal stress

Echo After's ministry provides a professional rock band, worship team, and speaker all in one. This allows for the maximum impact on your students while making logistics easy on you and your staff both on and off stage. For further information including full band bio, references, newspaper and magazine articles, videos, and more visit www.echoafter.com/booking.htm. To inquire about booking the band, please call or email the contacts listed to the right. The band looks forward to ministering with you!
