Unfinished Business:

We discussed the Diorama contest. We finalized a list of possible sponsors. Scott agreed to contact them about prizes etc. Carl made final plans with the Beachcomber Collectibles owner Doug Keefe. The Atlantic City Press was contacted and agreed to do an article about the club and the contest in their Community section. A writer and photographer were present at this meeting.

Members were interviewed and photos were taken of the club members and Carl's GI Joe collection. The article should be scheduled and printed the first week in September with the start of the contest.

Scott created a poster and the rules and entry form for the contest. Copies were given to each member. A list of possible judges was made. Their names will be announced if they agree to judge the contest.

New Business:

None, we have enough work to do.

Next meeting will also be our club family picnic. Sunday September 15, 1:00 pm at the Cape May County Park and Zoo.

The meeting was adjourned.
