

Out of the Office

▲ Fracht, Smith honored for self-advocacy work

Ann Fracht and Craig Smith of Vinfen, a Cambridge-based human services organization, received the 2007 Gunnar Dybwad Leadership Award for their work in creating Massachusetts Advocates Standing Strong, the first statewide self-advocacy organization founded and operated by people with cognitive and developmental disabilities. From left: Vinfen President and CEO Gary W. Lamson, Craig Smith, Anne Fracht, state Department of Mental Retardation commissioner Gerald Morrissey and Vinfen COO Bruce Bird.

Out of the Office

www.bostonbusinessjournal.com

Fracht, Smith honored for self-advocacy work

Ann Fracht and Craig Smith of Vinfen, a Cambridge-based human services organization, received the 2007 Gunnar Dybwad Leadership Award for their work in creating Massachusetts Advocates Standing Strong, the first statewide self-advocacy organization founded and operated by people with cognitive and developmental disabilities. From left: Vinfen President and CEO Gary W. Lamson, Craig Smith, Anne Fracht, state Department of Mental Retardation commissioner Gerald Morrissey and Vinfen COO Bruce Bird.

Winnies honored by 3

Winnies, a group of young women who have overcome significant challenges, were honored by three prominent figures in the community. The award recognizes their resilience and leadership in the face of adversity.

500 The Greenway

Completed in 2007

500 Franklin Ave
Boston, MA 02110
617-552-4000
www.greenway.com

Cardinals in Profiles of Food Banking

Leaders from the MA&D COMMUNITY

MA&D is proud to have had the opportunity to meet with the Cardinals and discuss the importance of food banking in the community. The Cardinals are committed to making a difference in the lives of those in need.

MA&D is proud to have had the opportunity to meet with the Cardinals and discuss the importance of food banking in the community. The Cardinals are committed to making a difference in the lives of those in need.