We are very excited to announce that we have the great privilege to introduce a program this winter that will offer great opportunities to the participants.

We will provide a camp led by one of the premier coaches in NCAA Division I Soccer, Phil Presser. Phil was a national championship winner in college, both as player and an Assistant Coach. He currently works with one of the major colleges in our region. For more of Phil Presser's bio, please see below.

A College Identification Camp will be taking place at Campton United's own indoor facility on December 9th through the 11th. It will be designed as both an opportunity to train with and be evaluated by a professional NCAA Division I coach and Campton Boys Directors Dio Tadimi & Eric Duda. At the conclusion of the camp, an individualized evaluation will be provided to every participant.

We look forward to seeing you at this exciting event.

Phil Presser

A native of Fort Wayne, Ind., where he was a high school All-American and 1998 Indiana Player of the Year at Canterbury High School, Presser graduated from IU with a bachelor's degree in management in 2003.

Coach Phil enjoyed a professional playing career with the Kansas City Comets and Chicago Storm of the Major Indoor Soccer League.

Presser was a four-year letterwinner at Indiana from 1999 to 2002 and helped the Hoosiers win a national championship as a freshman. A three-year starting midfielder and two-time All-Big Ten selection, Presser made three trips to the College Cup with the Hoosiers and helped IU to a 70-18-3 overall record during his career.
