

Trombone

Awake, My Heart, with Gladness

Auf, Auf, Mein Herz

Text: Paul Gerhardt, 1606-76;
tr. John Kelly, 1833-90, alt.

Tune: Johann Crüger, 1598-1662
Public Domain

1 D G/D A/D G/D

Vocal

Trombone

5 D G A D Bm F#

1 A - wake, my heart, with glad - ness, See what — to - day — is 2 The foe in tri - umph shout - ed When Christ — lay in — the 3 Now I will clink for - ev - er To Christ, — my Sav - ior

11 Bm D G A D

done;
tomb;
true;

11 Now, af - ter gloom and sad - ness, Comes
But, lo, he now is rout - ed, His My Lord will leave me nev - er, What -

Trombone

Awake, My Heart, with Gladness

2

17 Bm F# Bm D A

forth— the glo - rious sun. My Sav - ior there— was boast— is turned— to gloom. For Christ a - gain— is e'er— he pass - es through. He rends death's i - ron

23 D Em B E

laid free; chain; Where our bed must— be made When
 In glo - rious vic - to - ry pain; He He breaks through sin— and pain; He

29 D E A G A

to— the realms— of light Our spir - it wings— its who— is strong— to save Has tri - umphed o'er— the shat - ters hell's— grim thrall; I fol - low him— through

35 D G/D A/D G/D D

flight. grave. all. flight. grave. all.