

The sounds can be thunderous or subdued; the blues or dixie, jazz or contemporary; even the oldies but goodies . . . they all flow freely from the Lou Giovi Quintet.

- Lou Giovi is many things to many people
- To his fine listeners he is an exciting entertainer with many dazzling moods
- Dancers dig his variety of rhythms
- To his fellow musicians he is a talented bandleader who generates a unique swing which really pleases the public

People are drawn into his music and soon find themselves singing and dancing even if they don't know how. His "sing-a-long" is a popular hit of the evening featuring familiar songs that everyone knows.

Entertainment suits Lou perfectly. His voice, stature, expression and sense of humor command great respect. This Quintet consists of drums, trumpet, sax, accordion, bass and clarinet.

Surprisingly, Giovi's Inn had a small beginning but one can't ignore a tornado, and you can believe that's how Giovi's is now sweeping the public off their feet. Besides weekend entertainment, "Godfather" night which takes place on Wednesdays at Giovi's has proven to be memorable for all.

The results of the Giovi's success is clear and indicative of a true family effort towards an impressive achievement.

- Being able to dine and be entertained by the Lou Giovi Quintet is really a worthwhile evening. Giovi's is a totally "happy" room. Won't you join us sometime??!!

The Giovi family on behalf of Lou, wishes to share this experience again with all their dear friends and with all those who can communicate with music; so this is the way it happened . . .
