

- Are you willing to do whatever it takes to have your own way?
- Who or what things are above God's rightful position in your life?
- How difficult is it for you to admit when you are wrong?

R+I+P: Rebellion + Idolatry + Pride = A Spiritual Death Sentence by Vendetta Blowe takes you on a "three-mile" journey to help you identify and eradicate the evils of the three "big ones": rebellion, idolatry, and pride.

In her first book, Mrs. Blowe teaches you how to avoid spiritual wreckage through the application of revelation. Freedom comes when we first see ourselves through the mirror of God's Word and recognize these sometimes not-so-obvious evils in our own lives.

R+I+P: Rebellion + Idolatry + Pride = A Spiritual Death Sentence will help you escape the rubble of spiritual decay as you discover how to:

- combat rebellious actions and attitudes with God's loving and simple solution
- tear down idolatrous distractions and spiritual rotteness
- destroy the evil of pride and walk with the Holy Spirit into truth and deliverance

God's Word, as presented by the author, will free you from a spiritual death sentence and train you to resist the Devil. This is a must-read for the one who desires a pure and simple restored relationship with God, for the one who recognizes the trap of rebellion, idolatry, and pride, and for the one who doesn't.

Vendetta Blowe has come into God's kingdom of authors for such a time as this. Ministering in the US and abroad, she proclaims a message of reflection and introspection, releasing hope in the highways of the marketplace and the byways of prison cells. Vendetta lives in the Chicago area with her husband and daughter.
