The fair planning committee reserves the right to approve exhibitors and sponsors in accordance with our mission statement (see website for mission statement). The fair is requiring each exhibitor to write a short statement on how your organization supports peace and justice. Please also post this on your exhibit, as people are interested in what you do!

STATEMENT on how we support peace and justice...

CHECK ALL THAT APPLY:

_____ We want to be sponsors of the fair! We know we must send this in before August 1. Attached find $100, which means this is our only cost for a space at the fair, and we will be listed on the posters and website. Sponsorship after August 7 will be accepted, but the posters will already be done. We realize there is an option for an in-kind donation for sponsorship as well.

Our organization's website is: _____

We will sell _____. (if applicable)
(if selling food, check below for food information)

_____ We are selling food we prepare. We realize we must Attach proof of insurance and have in place the requirements set by the Health District and Fire Marshall. (see website)

_____ We will need electricity. (this will cost $5.00 more)

_____ Additional needs? These are...

According to the Fire Marshall's guidelines, we will follow the guidelines for either a medium risk stand or high risk stand. (circle one)

Please make checks out to Vancouver Peace and Justice. The Vancouver Peace and Justice Fair is not a 501C3 non-profit organization. Unfortunately, donations are not tax deductible. Mail this form and check to:

We understand we will hear details from the fair by August 25.
We also realize the price of the exhibit goes up on August 25.

PLEASE CHECK OFF THAT YOU UNDERSTAND THE PARK RULES BELOW!

We will send out the rules again as the time approaches, but we want everyone to have a good experience in loading and unloading, and know that if we all drive in the same direction we won't have a traffic jam. Here are the rules so driving in and out of the park goes smoothly...

_____ Yes, we realize we are not to drive on the grass EVER. Yes, we will not drive stakes into the ground, and should probably use water-filled milk jugs to hold down the awning legs.

_____ Yes, we realize we will not be supplied with a table, chairs or awning and should bring our own. (this keeps prices down!)

_____ Yes, we will tell all people of our group the rules.

_____ We realize that placement of our exhibit space is first come, first served, that there are no assigned locations of exhibit spaces.

_____ We realize we should drive our car in from the north, and check in with the registrar at the entrance there.

_____ We understand that we will turn left, or clockwise, around the loop at the park.

_____ We will park temporarily on the right to unload, and leave space for traffic to pass on the left.

_____ As soon as we have unloaded, we will exit via the left lane of the north park entrance.

_____ We understand there will be no political parties at the fair, and no campaigning for a candidate or proselytizing for a religion.
