

Famous Words

You are the movie star in this reading game!

First read

a story, “Mary Had a Little Ham” by Margie Palatini and Guy Francis. It is a story about a pig who wanted to be a movie star! After you read the story, put on your movie star glasses, and play the game, ‘Famous Words.’

Place the word cards face down on the gameboard.

Place the game pieces on Start.

One player will choose a word card and then roll the die.

Read the word on the card.

If the word is read correctly, move your game piece ahead the same number of spaces you rolled.

If the word is read incorrectly, your turn ends.

Play continues with players alternating turns until one player reaches the Finish line.
